

Flint in time and space – Time and space in flint.
Procurement and distribution of siliceous rocks in prehistory with a special theme – flint mining

1-3 December 2016, Warsaw, 105, Solidarności Avenue, room 202

1 December 2016

- 11.00– Jerzy Maik (Director of the Institute of Archaeology and Ethnology PAS)
Opening ceremony
- 11:30– Jacek Lech (Chair of Prehistory and the European Middle Ages. Institute of Archaeology of the Cardinal Stefan Wyszyński University in Warsaw and The Archaeological Museum and Reserve at Krzemionki)
Siliceous rocks mining in prehistory
- 12:00– Hélène Collet (Service public de Wallonie, Service de l'Archéologie; Direction extérieure du Hainaut I; Spiennes, Belgium), Jean-Philippe Collin (University of Namur / University of Paris 1 Panthéon-Sorbonne, Department of Archaeology and History of Art, Namur, Belgium), Françoise Bostyn (Institut national de Recherche archéologique préventive, Villeneuve d'Ascq, France) and Jean-Marc Baele (University of Mons, Department of Geology and Applied Geology, Mons, Belgium)
New contributions to the flint mining activity in Spiennes: flint characterisation and distribution of the Spiennes flint in Western Belgium and Northern France
- 12:30 – Åsa Berggren (Department of Archaeology and Ancient History, Lund University, Sweden)
The flint mines in Södra Sallerup, Malmö – recent excavations and interpretations
- 13:00 – Discussion
- 13:15 – Zsolt Mester (Institute of Archaeological Sciences, Eötvös Loránd University, Budapest, Hungary)
Budapest-Farkasrét: an almost unknown exploitation site of the Buda hornstone
- 13:45 – Anne Hauzeur (Paléotime, France and collaborator at the Royal Belgian Institute of Natural sciences, Belgium) and Marianne Delcourt-Vlaminck (Curator of the Archaeological Museum, Tournai, Belgium)
The Long distance exchange of mining sites from the Northern point of view: Grand-Pressigny flint and others
- 14:15 – Marta Połtowicz-Bobak and Dariusz Bobak (Institute of Archaeology, University of Rzeszów, Poland)
Variability of the lithic raw material on the palaeolithic sites in the south-eastern Poland
- 14:30 – Norbert Faragó and Zsolt Mester (Institute of Archaeological Sciences, Eötvös Loránd University, Budapest, Hungary)
The chocolate flint at Polgár-Csőszhalom, Northeast Hungary
- 14:40 – Discussion
- 15:00 – Coffee break
- 15:30 – Richard E. Hughes (Geochemical Research, Laboratory, Portola Valley, U.S.A.), Zofia Sulgostowska and Dagmara H. Werra (Institute of Archaeology and Ethnology Polish Academy of Sciences, Warsaw, Poland)
Geochemical Characterization of Paleolithic Obsidian Artifacts from Poland
- 15:45 – Małgorzata Winiarska-Kabacińska (Archeological Museum of Poznań, Poland)
Flint in time and space. Late Palaeolithic site Rydno IV/57
- 16:00 – Janusz Budziszewski, Mateusz Iwański (Institute of Archaeology of the Cardinal Stefan Wyszyński University, Warsaw, Poland), Michał Jakubczak (Institute of Archaeology and Ethnology Polish Academy of Science), Hubert Lepionka (Adam Mickiewicz University in Poznań) and Michał Szubski (Institute of Archaeology of the Cardinal Stefan Wyszyński University, Warsaw, Poland)
Neolithic chocolate flint mine “Oszybka” near Pakosław in light of Marcin Bednarz survey
- 16:15 – Discussion
- 16.30 – Refreshment and beverages

2 December 2016

11:00 - 15:00 Workshops

3 December 2016

7:00 - 20.00 Field trip

Organizing committee

dr Dagmara H. Werra, dr Iwona Sobkowiak-Tabaka and mgr Katarzyna Kerneder-Gubała (Institute of Archaeology and Ethnology Polish Academy of Sciences)
flint@iaepan.edu.pl

