

POST SYMPOSIUM EXCURSION: ATLANTIC COAST, NECOCHEA MUSEUM AND TANDIL QUARRY AREA

During the post symposium field excursion, we will visit archaeological localities and sites of geological interest in the Pampean region of Buenos Aires province. It will last 2 days and people interested in participating should let us know as soon as possible. We will then need a payment of 50% of the fee to reserve your place before September 30th. We count with a maximum of 40 places. Please contact: norafleg@gmail.com

Saturday November 11th

6 am. Departure from Buenos Aires by bus

12 am. Arrival at Mar del Plata city. Visit to coastal archaeological site Alfar (guide: Dr. Mariano Bonomo)

1.30 pm. Lunch

2.30 pm. Visit to coastal cliffs at Chapadmalal, stratigraphic description (guide: Dr. Marcelo Zárate)

3.30 pm. Travel to Necochea. Hotel check in.

5.30 pm. Visit at Museum (Pampean collections, quarry materials, bola stones, Fishtail points) (guides: Lic. Nora Flegenheimer, Lic. Águeda Caro Petersen, Dr. Celeste Weitzel, Dr. Natalia Mazzia and Dr. Rodrigo Vecchi)

6.30 pm. Welcome wine with toolstone available for flintknapping

Night at Hotel in Necochea

Sunday November 12th

8 am. Departure from Necochea

10.30 pm. Arrival at La Numancia, Tandil quarry area. Visit to Sierras Bayas Group orthoquartzite quarries (guides: Dr. Mariano Colombo, Lic. Nora Flegenheimer)

2.00 pm. Field lunch

4.00 pm. Departure for Buenos Aires

11.00 pm. Arrival at Buenos Aires hotels.

The time schedule is approximate and subject to modification if it rains. Costs were calculated considering 40 participants. Changes in the number of participants may alter costs.

Cost: 170 $US or 3,000$ ARS, including: travel, hotel night, field meals, excursion guide.

Option with sleeping accommodation in the town hall gymnasium: 140 $US or 2,600$ ARS.